Sunday Sermons

5/12, TODAY, 11: 00AM – “Birthing Revolution, Birthing Hope”

Siwatu-Salama Ra, Guest Speaker

Mother and organizer Siwatu-Salama Ra will share her experience being raised by an activist mother along with a village of Detroit organizers, and how she passes on the generational wealth of love, social justice, and community power to her children. She grew up in the environmental justice movement and is currently the co-director of East Michigan Environmental Action Council. In addition to her work locally and across the country, Siwatu represented Detroit and the United States at global social justice and climate justice events in France, Turkey, and Senegal. She also led youth organizing and media justice work including the Young Educators Alliance and Detroit Future Youth.

5/19 11:00AM – “Hospitality and Welcome”

Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray, Minister

Two days before this service, the world will commemorate The International Day Against Homophobia, Transphobia and Biphobia. This is a day to raise awareness of LGBT rights violations and stimulate interest in LGBT rights work worldwide. As we seek to become an ever more welcoming church, I want to discuss the very concept of hospitality and what we might do to become increasingly welcome to our LGBT neighbors and friends.

SHARE THE PLATE: We shifted Share the Plate to the 2nd Sunday this month. Our Share the Plate recipient is Siwatu-Salama Ra. After successfully securing bond pending appeal, Siwatu's legal team is pursuing various tactics, including reversal of the conviction and a commutation and/or pardon.

The rules for the Share the Plate Sunday are as follows: Any funds received during the offertory that have no designation will be split 50/50 between our guest recipient and the church. Please mark in the memo area of your check or on the envelope as to how you want your donation to be allocated. Share the Plate donations do not count toward your pledge.
