Sunday Sermons

12/2, TODAY, 11:00AM – “The Detroit River Walk: Welcoming to All”

John Hartig, Guest Speaker

Waterfront Porch is the story of how Detroit is building a new front door to the Detroit River called the Detroit River Walk as part of a strategy to reconnect people with nature, help revitalize the city and region, and help foster a more sustainable future. It is a story of one of the largest, by scale, waterfront redevelopment projects in the United States, that will give hope and will help provide evidence that Detroit and its metropolitan region have a bright future. Dr. John Hartig is currently a Visiting Scholar at University of Windsor's Great Lakes Institute for Environmental Research and the Great Lakes Science-Policy Advisor for the International Association for Great Lakes Research.

12/9 11:00AM – “Universal Declaration of Human Rights”

Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray, Minister

We celebrate the 70th anniversary of this historic document, adopted by the United Nations General Assembly at its third session on December 10, 1948 as Resolution 217 at the Palais de Chaillot in Paris, France. The Declaration consists of 30 articles affirming an individual's rights which, although not legally binding in themselves, have been elaborated in subsequent international treaties, economic transfers, regional human rights instruments, national constitutions, and other laws. The Declaration was the first step in the process of formulating the International Bill of Human Rights, which was completed in 1966, and came into force in 1976.

THE WORDS TO THE OPENING HYMN

Hail Detroit, the Motor City #140
words by Felix Adler, music by Rowland High Pritchard

Hail Detroit, the motor city, pictured by the seers of old:
everlasting light shines o'er it, wondrous things of it are told.
Wise and righteous men and women dwell within its gleaming wall;
wrong is banished from its borders, justice reigns supreme o'er all.

2
We are builders of that city. All our joys and all our groans help to rear its shining ramparts; all our lives are building-stones.
Whether humble or exalted, all are called to task divine;
all must aid alike to carry forward one sublime design.

And the work that we have builded, oft with bleeding hands and tears,
oft in error, oft in anguish, will not perish with our years:
it will live and shine transfigured in the final reign of right:
it will pass into the splendors of the city of the light.
